GOLF? GOLF? OH, YES, THAT WALK ACCOMPANIED BY EXPLETIVES

It seems like more than a month ago that we played our final Probus Northumberland golf game of the year. And, by golly, it was. Oct. 16, in fact, the day of the Ann & Barry Hollis Pro-Am Celebrity Invitational at Shelter Valley Pines.

A bright, shiny day, though we had to wait for the frost to clear before course management let us out of the gate.

The foursome of Norm Davies, Verna Templer, John Ellery and Stan Maggs and that of Ted Jex, Ann Hollis, Brian Salley and Barry Hollis each came home with 31. Marilyn Wood and Doug Lloyd came closest to the pin and Monica and Gord Hewson had the longest drives.

SALLY ANN NEEDS YOU

Stan Maggs spoke up for Diane at our last meeting to appeal for volunteers to man the Salvation Army Christmas Kettle in the Cobourg Canadian Tire Store. About a dozen stepped up to put their names down. But, as Diane will tell you this morning, there are still some 30 slots to be filled.

JUNE HARVEY, PAST PRESIDENT, PROBUS CLUB OF COBOURG

Karin Allan, president of Probus Cobourg, has advised us by e-mail that June Harvey died on Friday, Nov. 17. A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, Nov. 24, at St. Peter's Church, to be followed by a reception in the Grand Hall.

REMEMBRANCE DAY IN COBOURG

Several of our members followed the Remembrance Day Parade from the Royal Canadian Legion on Saturday, Nov. 11, and attended the service and dedication in Victoria Park. Harold Coward laid a wreath at the Cenotaph on behalf of the Probus Club of Northumberland.

AS FRED ASTAIRE SAID, TIME TO PUT ON THE OLD FEED-BAG

And, as Michael Caine would have said, not many people know that. So get to it: the Lunch Bunch, dedicated noshers, are galloping to Just Judy's on the west side of Division St. south of King St. right after today's meeting. On your marks...

As is our custom at this festive
time of year,
the entire staff of Pro-Buzz, worldwide
and whatever its faith or denomination,
reaches into its collective soul
and bottomless well
of good cheer to wish
all of our readers, wherever they may be,
an indescribably Merry Christmas
and an intoxicatingly Happy (but in moderation)
New Year
